

RCI summer sale

ROYAL Caribbean International has launched a summer sale on voyages in the South Pacific, Australia and New Zealand.

There are 13 cruises discounted for travel between Oct and Mar next year, with prices on the Sydney to Tropical Queensland cruise priced from $999pp.

The deal is available for new bookings made before 31 Aug.

All You Can Jet Blue

US airline JetBlue has introduced a new flight pass which offers customers unlimited travel for three months.

The 'BluePass' is an updated version of a similar product last year, but unlike the 2010 pass (which included the airline's entire network) this year it covers flights from Boston and Long Beach in the north-eastern USA.

The carrier is targeting business travellers with the move, with passes priced from US$1299 for flights from Long Beach to nine cities including Chicago and San Francisco; moving to US$1999 for a pass giving unlimited flights from Boston to 54 JetBlue ports.

D7 CHC Fly-Thru rise

AIRASIA X has added Hong Kong, Macau, Phuket and Ho Chi Minh City as new destinations available on its Fly-Thru services from Christchurch.

The move means passengers can enjoy the convenience of a single check-in and baggage transfer in Kuala Lumpur.

Foothills expansion

FOOTHILL's Conference Centre in Mooroolbark, Victoria has expanded its meeting space to cater to up to 250 delegates.

The property says it also plans to increase its 54 guest rooms to over 100 as part of the upgrade.

Frontier ancillaries

US LOW cost carrier Frontier Airlines is to become the first carrier to begin displaying its range of ancillary services via Travelport and Amadeus GDSs.

The move follows last week's announcement that Frontier had signed a multi-year deal with Travelport to display its fares and seat inventory (TD Wed).
